

CLEARWATER

ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING OFFICERS

A turn-key, trusted solution for all requirements

1

Anti-Money Laundering Compliance Officer (AMLCO)

2

Money Laundering Reporting Officer (MLRO)

3

Deputy Money Laundering Reporting Officer (DMLRO)

As per the 2018 amendment to the Cayman Islands Anti-Money-Laundering Regulation, funds incorporated in the Cayman Islands are required by law to appoint three roles, AMLCO, to oversee the application of the AML/CFT/CPF requirements, MLRO to serve as point of contact with the Authority for suspicious activities and reporting process, and DMLRO, who deputizes the MLRO during his/her absence. The same person may act as AMLCO and MLRO, however, the MLRO and DMLRO must be different persons.

Clearwater has a team of qualified specialists with deep expertise to fulfill all or a singular one of these roles while keeping abreast of global requirements for seamless regulatory compliance related to sanctions and combat of money laundering, terrorism financing, proliferation financing.

Todd Hazlewood

Managing Director - Fiduciary Services

Email:
todd.hazlewood@clearwater.ky

Phone:
+1 (345) 925-0341

Lee Moroney

Associate Director - Fiduciary Services

Email:
lee.moroney@clearwater.ky

Phone:
+1 (470) 890-3458
+1 (345) 917-9239